There may be some errors throughout the book, but it is hope they are few. If the readers find any error, please report to the compiler.
It is with pleasure that I present this book to this present generation to all who will enjoy reading it. It is done as a labor of love, and I have enjoyed the warm and lovely relationships through correspondences, visits and the family reunion. The cooperation and effort of all were much appreciated for making this book possible. I have a photo copy of the book that belonged to my Aunt Dorothy Arlene (Mack) Edmonds.
